

Side Effects of Health Reform on Business

Texas Health Presbyterian Hospital Denton

Laura Stromberg is the communications director for the National Federation of Independent Business and has a background in both journalism and public relations. Prior to joining NFIB/Texas, Laura served as the press secretary for gubernatorial candidate Kinky Friedman as well as spent several years at various public relations agencies.

Laura holds English and Journalism degrees from the University of Texas at Austin

Lee Spangler is the Vice-President of Medical Economics for Texas Medical Association. The Division of Medical Economics represents, develops policy for, and advocates for TMA on regulatory, socioeconomic, and health policy issues at state and federal levels (particularly focusing on managed care). Prior to his appointment as vice-president he was associate general counsel practicing insurance law, health law, and administrative law for the Association.

Mr. Spangler earned his undergraduate degree in business administration from Saint Edward's University in Austin and his Juris Doctorate from the University of Dayton School of Law.

Lisa Wiborg is Director of Human Resources for Peterbilt.